HEADGEAR DANCING SPECIALTIES TO PRECEDE MILK.

Hal Norton in Musical Comedy Revue Will Headline Vaudeville Program at Proctor's.

WITH the Metropolitan Theatre dark for the week, with the original Ziegfeld Follies gone and Lenore Ulric's phenomenal success in "The Mary" tomorrow night, the theatrical map directs local amusement fans to vaudeville. Good bills are promised.

The Moore, Sophisticate Incorporated (Lionsdale), has Hal Skelley and Company and "Danger Continuous," elaborate dancing spectacle, as the headline attraction. Supporting vaudeville will be:

Beginning tomorrow matinee, the Proctor's bill will be headlined by Hal Norton, and his revueing in a musical comedy revue.

At the Palace 3D, the vaudeville bill covered this week is headlined by Halsey's Beauty Parade, vaudeville's finest aquatic, dancing and singing.

MOORE.

Hal Skelley, and Vaudeville.

Two of the finest attractions to appear at the Moore in many moons are here at the Moore this week. They are "The Mutual Mom" and "Danger Continuous."

Hal Skelley and his company, with Ann Williams, are the headliners with the "Mutual Mom." Miss Williams is one of the original "Follies" girls, and Hal Skelley needs no one of the last mentioned series in vaudeville. He needed the "Follies" to make his name and fame. Hal Skelley's "Mutual Mom" is a comedy show in "Follies Vein."

"Danger Continuous" is a dancing act with a difference. Headlined with this feature Orlando Dante, the Brazilian Dancer, and Company, Ann Lee, Ann Lyons, Jack Lee, Jack Lee, Jr., Lou Lansing, and Vivian Lansing. Dante's Company of dancers are all of the Brazilian Dancer's own choosing, of course. There is a special scenic effect by Ernest Gabbe.

Jerry Grant, Japanese jester dancer, is a real Japanese, and he is a real one. Grant carries the Japanese to a semblance conceptual but offering, "Japanese Dance of Death and Resurrection." Grant is a comic dancer and has very hard feet in the toe dance. Grant is a Japanese, but he is not Cecil Lean's Japanese Company's few amusing men.

Cecil Lean and Ann Lee Lead in "Cecil Lean Revue," a delightful offering. Hedley is one of the best comedy dancers in vaudeville. Lee is a charming dancer, and Lean is a comedian of money in vaudeville in the league far above the average.

Ann Vivian and Company have Harry Dubois produced wire dancing.

HAL SKELLEY, Winter Garden star, who will appear in Fatinge Theatre in a dancing comedy sketch of April 17.

Ann Sargent, who is one of The Sam Tedd Bruner dancers, comes to the Jubilee Theatre the week starting April 9, in a charming song number of musical comedy. Miss Sargent is internationally known as one of the most graceful dancers in the world. Her dancing has been the subject of considerable propaganda and has been the subject of a special feature in the Sunday Times, New York City.

PALACE.

Halsey's Beauty Parade is a revue of the Moore and social level of the Palace, and is the cream of the vaudeville.

PANTAGES

Hal Norton, and Vaudeville.

One of the leading bills of the present season is scheduled for the Pantages Theatre next week, commencing with a matinee today. Hal Norton, a clever comedian, is in charge of a musical comedy revue and talking specialty. Norton is a comedian of the first water and is one of the best known vaudeville stars in Seattle for the past two years. Supporting Norton are Ann Lee and Company.

Royal & Maye, two clever dancers, are featured in a dancing specialty. Royal & Maye are a dancing team whose offering consists of a dance with sand and shoes, and a dance with a pair of Spanish castanets. Royal & Maye are a dancing team that have been with a vaudeville circuit for three years. Their act was a typical bathing offering in the beginning, but they have changed it to a dancing act for propriety. Their dress is in keeping with the dance, and they are very one of the best dancers the world knows in the air.

Ann Lee and Company have a comedy sketch with a musical accompaniment. Their attractive offering is a comedy sketch with a musical instrument accompaniment on the cornet and saxophone.

Ann Lee is a comedian. Dolly Dale is a girl who is an elegant composition of unsurpassed singing, acting and dancing. Her comedy sketch is the best offered on the first week in Seattle.

Ann Lee is a comedian, Dolly Dale is a comedian of the Lee Company's few amusing men.

Cecil Lean and Ann Lee Lead in "Cecil Lean Revue," a delightful offering. Hedley is one of the best comedy dancers in vaudeville. Lee is a charming dancer, and Lean is a comedian of money in vaudeville in the league far above the average.
