

1. JESSIE SUTHERLAND, Orpheum.
2. FANNY USHER, Pastages.

3. MABEL NAYNON, Pastages.
4. JESSIE WATTERS, Palace Hip.

5. JANE DARWELL, Wilkes.
6. BILLIE BINGHAM, Gaiety.

ONE of the biggest of the Trans-continental Vaudeville Road Shows yet seen at the Orpheum Theatre, Third Avenue and Madison Street, is promised for today, tomorrow and Tuesday only by Manager Eugeno Levy. Heading the six acts will be Buckley's Monkey Circus, with five trained monkeys and a trained dog, an especially delightful turn for all the children and one which it is said will have a few astonishments for the grownups.

Jessie Sutherland and her partner will offer an aquatic novelty. They carry their own tank and show the fanciest of swimming and diving accomplishments.

Sue Stead is a whistling comedienne. The Deacon Jones Four are real negroes. "The Bunktown Minstrels," with comedy, singing, talking and dancing of liveliest variety.

The Franco Trio are two young men and a pretty girl who appear in their native Italian costume, sing gloriously and play the mandolin and guitar.

Keefer and Alberts are comedy talkers and harmony singers.